

A Prayer for The Kingdom of God at The Awakening before the door of the first End Time World System.

Father, Thank you for the Lord Jesus our Savior, Thank you for your word, thank you for prophecy and Revelation; and thank you for making it possible for all people to understand it.

Father I ask you to give me a peace and perfect patience to understand the message of Jesus Christ given through Revelation and to know why they that read it are blessed. Lord God give me this blessing, and the endurance and perseverance to know what you want me to receive from the message of Revelation as it is presented In Plain Language with the message of the Gospel.

Thank you Father for the millions among God's people that have a heart to receive the message of Revelation and The Gospel Story.

Help me to give them the opportunity to hear it by learning and telling them about it. Guide their steps Lord God; give them the patience they need to learn from all you have made available to us, and help them to find purpose and meaning in the Kingdom of God, and the wisdom to see that Satan has made a trap for most of God's people, help us to know that Jesus has given us the answer for escaping that trap if we listen to him.

Father help us to see that even if the whole world turns against us “your people” that you are mighty to save and provide for us if we trust you instead of trusting in the coming one world government. Help us to realize that we, “as your people” have a part, and that you will not do our part for us, and help us trust that you have and will do your part when we do ours and that what we do makes a difference.

Father, open the eyes of your people and inspire those that see this tremendous opportunity to reach the people of God before it is too late. Help us to realize the great treasures we lay in store by saving your people, and rescuing them from this wicked trap.

The time is near and the circumstances and the prevailing ideas in current Christian thought are so very ingrained. It's going to take great faith and endurance to open the eyes of many.

Help us to understand many will refuse to open their eyes and altogether fight against us, though we only seek to rescue them and save them from being swept away by the Mammon of this world. Many of your people will trust in doing whatever it takes to survive even though they are opposing you.

Let this be our burden Lord, to save as many as the Lord would have, and those that rebel unto perdition? Lord let us restore our peace and renew ourselves in your word and trust in this, that if we put this message out, those that love and trust you to provide for them through all things; will allow you to take care of them when the rest of the world have rejected them.

Help us stand against all those that refuse God and his people by their devilish plan to phase out your people from the face of the whole world.

Finally let us rejoice in suffering and even dying if must need be, that for a time each one of us can be strong enough to inspire one another, and may the Lord God bless and keep us always as he always has and always will, to them which love him and stand fast in his way. In Jesus name we so pray and do
